

ABOUT THIS CODICIL FORM

You may prefer to make your bequest to Maluk Timor Australia by making a codicil to your existing Will.

A codicil is a legally acceptable addition to a Will that is sometimes used instead of changing a Will.

Before making a codicil, you are urged to seek independent professional advice from a solicitor.

In some circumstances, it is better to update an existing Will than to prepare a codicil; but this is a matter to discuss with a suitably qualified adviser.

If, having obtained appropriate advice, you still wish to make a codicil, please complete this form, taking care to:

- Ensure that you provide the date of your current Will;
- Sign where indicated before two independent witnesses over the age of 18, using the same pen;
- The two witnesses should NOT be a member of your family or related to you in any way, and should not be any other person who is mentioned in your Will (for example, a beneficiary or executor);
- Once complete, the original signed codicil should be kept with your Will in the same envelope.
- If your solicitor or other person retains your Will, ask that the codicil and Will are stored together.
